

Estuary Science for a Changing Climate
Public Forum

Thursday 31st May 2007
University of Western Australia

National
Estuaries
Network

Department of Water
Government of Western Australia

Start	Finish
8:30	8:55	REGISTRATION: University of Western Australia Theatre Auditorium, University Club of Western Australia
9:00	9:15	NEN Introduction – Emma Murray , NEN Chair
9:15	9:30	Welcome and opening address by the Western Australian Department of Water
9:30	10:10	1. Dr Charitha Pattiaratchi, University of WA Climate Change forcings on Estuaries
10:10	10:40	2. Malcolm Robb, WA Department of Water Estuarine responses to a drying climate
10:40	11:10	MORNING TEA
11:10	11:40	3. Karen Wheeler, WA Department of Water Acid Sulphate Soils – looking for aquatic impacts
11:40	12:10	4. Christine Coughanowr, Tasmanian Department of Tourism, Arts and the Environment Derwent Estuary Program: Overview, Monitoring and Science Initiatives
12:10	13:20	LUNCH
13:20	13:50	5. Dr Kathryn McMahon, Edith Cowan University Feeding Behaviour of Black Swans
13:50	14:20	6. Dr Kevin Petrone, CSIRO Catchment Dissolved Organic Carbon – importance in estuary production
14:20	14:50	7. Dr Ralf Haese, Geoscience Australia Sediments as indicators of estuarine health
14:50	15:30	AFTERNOON TEA
15:30	16:00	8. Chris Hallett, Murdoch University Fish as indicators of estuarine health
16:00	16:40	Discussion – Chaired by Malcolm Robb
16:40	17:00	Thank you and Close

For more information about the NEN or this Public Forum, Contact:

Emma Murray

Geoscience Australia

emma.murray@ga.gov.au

ph. 02 6249 9019